

Flash Company is a leader of European urgent transport for automotive, industrial and health services, is the specialist for customized transport solutions adapted to the customers' needs.

Present in 18 countries in Europe and North Africa, the group employs 480 people and has a turnover of over then 140 M €.

As part of its international expansion, the Group Flash is looking for an English & German trainer to work on the area Metz / Luxembourg.

Missions:

The intern trainer has to speak fluently English and German to guide the group's employees in the daily use of English & German:

- He / She will organize individual trainings either in English or German face to face and/or by phone with French collaborators (intermediate level).
- He / She will assist the employees into the development and translation of documents from French in English or German (customer correspondence, tenders, emails ...)
- He / She will have the role to guide linguistically and technically his collaborators (advanced ones) as part of the improvement of exchanges ( in a meeting or telephone) between the French people and international customers and other employees of the group (not French )

Profile:

- Great organizational, methodological and teaching skills
- Good team spirit
- Good interpersonal skills
- Excellent knowledge of English and German
- Availability

Position to be filled as soon as possible. Start of the internship suitable on 26th of January 2015.

Internship during 3/4 months. Minimum training allowance paid 480 € + tickets restaurants. Accommodation Metz can be expected.

If this position interests you, please contact us to:

GROUP FLASH

Direction of Human Resources

Att Mrs Florence GILLEN

11 rue des Drapiers BP 85203

57076 METZ Cedex

Phone nr: (+33) 387 379 728

E-mail : f.gillen@flash-global.net